The Insolvency Journal

March 2009

a:m web were part of the skilled team that launched the Insolvency Journal. The Insolvency journal is a free, independent and unique news service offering insolvency news and resources for Ireland. The site produces regular, timely, high quality articles and statistics across all industries and lists daily updates on insolvency notices (creditors meetings, judgements & petitions) across the country.

Insolvencyjournal.ie also has a comprehensive resources area, containing some background material for the insolvency industry.

a:m web worked with ClearInk.ie, RainCommunications.ie, and AlisonDillon.com on the project.
